Mission & Goals

Mission

HCCI is committed to the holistic revitalization of Harlem. We provide economic development opportunities and empowerment of Harlem residents to rebuild their community.

History

Founded in 1986, HCCI is a coalition of inter-faith congregations that has implemented a comprehensive portfolio of programs to provide affordable housing and safe streets; offer opportunities for individuals and groups to become and remain economically independent; increase understanding of and access to health care; and provide substantive educational programs for adults and young people. Through alliances with other community organizations, elected officials and local residents, HCCI has also helped reduce crime in the community; increase public sanitation; and preserve and transform open space.

Leveraging more than $450 million in support from federal, state, and city agencies, HCCI's real estate office has developed more than 4,000 units of low, moderate and middle-income housing and nearly 70 commercial spaces including a 45,000 sq. ft. supermarket. Our health office provides scattered-site housing for 60 families and individuals living with HIV/AIDS. HCCI's adult education programs include soft employment skills, literacy training (in conjunction with Literacy Partners), and computer software training—all linked with job placement. To date, we have placed more than 2000 residents in employment opportunities.

HCCI is a not-for-profit, 501(c)(3) corporation governed by a Board of Directors, and relies on support from grants, donations and government contracts funds.

Goals

- To provide affordable rental housing and ownership options for various income levels including: homeless, relocatees, low to moderate income families/individuals, and disabled persons.
- To increase the number of Harlem residents accessing homeownership opportunities.
- To promote economic development through job training, employment opportunities, referral services, and commercial revitalization.
- To teach area residents life skills that bolster self-esteem, enhance self-respect and promote self-sufficiency.
- To coordinate community youth programming to provide educational, cultural, athletic and employment opportunities where youth can become constructive members of society and “change agents” in their community.
- To coordinate a full-range of comprehensive social service and health care service interventions for residents of Harlem.
- To provide housing, supportive services, case management, recreational activities, pastoral care, maintenance services, advocacy, education, prevention, and bereavement seminars for individuals and families in Harlem living with HIV/AIDS.

Real Estate Development

The Office of Real Estate and Economic Development (ORED) identifies and develops residential and commercial projects, and manages low to moderate-income housing. Through ORED, HCCI has developed over 4,000 units of low- and moderate-income housing units including more than 300 ownership units, and nearly 70 commercial spaces, including a 45,000 square foot supermarket.

Affordable Rental Housing

HCCI has rentals available on an ongoing basis. Our affordable rentals are filled and priced in accordance with family size and income. Qualified applicants are pulled from our waiting list. To be placed on the waiting list and to receive housing information, please visit hcci.org.

Ownership Opportunities

Within our portfolio of affordable housing, HCCI has developed more than 300 cooperatives and/or condominium units. In addition, the agency has rehabilitated three brownstones with two remaining in the pipeline.

Commercial Space

HCCI is committed to the holistic revitalization of Harlem, placing special emphasis on economic development. In service to that mission we have developed approximately 70 commercial spaces throughout Harlem, including a 45,000 sq. ft. supermarket located in Bradhurst Court at Frederick Douglass Blvd. and 145th Street.

Housing Counseling

HCCI provides counseling services to those seeking rental housing, to help residents become homeowners and to maintain the property they have purchased. We also assist with emergency housing needs for residents of distressed buildings.

Supportive Housing: Seniors, YAO & HIV/AIDS

Scattered Site Housing

Since 1999, HCCI has provided scattered site housing for individuals living with HIV/AIDS. Comprised of 60 units, this program provides case management; individual, family and group counseling; support groups, permanency planning and client advocacy. Clients are also provided rental assistance, new furniture, bedding, towels, kitchenware and other household items.

Youth Aging Out of Foster Care

Young Adult Supportive Services/ Independence Starts at Home (YASS) Program provides housing and supportive services to youth who aged out (YAO) of foster care and currently reside in David and Joyce Dinkins Gardens, a state-of-the art 85-unit low-income green building. These residents are provided with ongoing case management to help them sustain their homes and reach their maximum potential.

Senior Housing

HCCI offers senior housing at two locations. Dr. Muriel Petioni Plaza, Harlem's first LEED-Silver designed affordable housing development for low-income seniors offers 65 units. And Victory One provides 110 units of low-income, quality housing. Both sites provide onsite case management, recreation and social activities. Victory II, which will yield 134 units, is in predevelopment.

Community Engagement

HCCI empowers local residents through three key community engagement initiatives:

Resident & Tenant Associations

The agency has organized 40 resident associations and the Resident Leadership Council (RLC). RLC membership consists of resident association leaders. Through this vehicle residents are taught to be leaders, have access to elected officials, and property managers. The RLC helps residents to develop the skills and knowledge needed to effectively negotiate building and community improvements.

Community Improvement Group

The Community Improvement Group (CIG) convenes monthly with resident leaders and representatives from police precincts, parks and recreation, HPD, Sanitation, Health Department, Community Board, elected officials and property owners to address neighborhood issues and quality of life concerns.

The General Assembly

The General Assembly is a quarterly meeting of HCCI members, comprised of: interfaith leaders, lay leaders and local organizations, held to update the groups on HCCI initiatives and opportunities for the Harlem community.

Youth Development:

Afterschool, Early Childcare & Technology

Afterschool Program

HCCI offers an after school program for youngsters ages 5 to 12. Participating children are picked up from local public and charter schools by the facilitator, Hands That Make A Difference. The program offers homework assistance, S.T.E.A.M. enrichment activities have included dance, arts and crafts, and science and technology projects facilitated by NYIT, the New York Institute of Technology. The after school program follows the public school calendar and provides service from 2pm to 6pm, Monday thru Friday.

Rev. Canon Frederick B. Williams Center for Child Enrichment

Facilitated by Tender Tots, the Rev. Canon Frederick B. Williams Center for Child Enrichment offers the Bradhurst community 150 childcare slots for children of all ages. This state-of-the art facility was developed by HCCI and is located on 153rd Street in the Corridor of Service.

HCCI Technology Clubhouse

The HCCI Technology Center offers the latest technology, software and computers for youth ages 10 to 18. Collaborations with MIT and the Tribeca Film Institute have made this a popular destination for area youth.

Equitable Development

Established in 2003 as the Harlem Equitable Development Initiative (Harlem EDI), the Office of Equitable Development was created to help residents take part in Harlem's economic opportunities. Its services prepare Harlem residents to become stakeholders in their community through better understanding of financial concepts, homeownership and business development opportunities.

Lending Circle

Each month, community residents can join a lending circle through HCCI. Modeled after the susu, a community-based lending model where participants loan each other money, the HCCI Lending Circles formalize the process and provide local residents with a way to save money and improve their credit. Lending Circle payments are reported directly to the credit bureaus. Participants have increased their credit scores by up to 100 points.

Homebuyer Education

Homebuyer education offers participants a crash course in the homebuying process. Enrollees learn to budget, secure a mortgage, access grants and more. Throughout this 4-week course, participants meet industry professionals who can help them through the process including: mortgage officers, attorneys, appraisers and contractors to name a few.

Small Business Seminar

The Small Business Development Seminar helps community residents establish new businesses by taking them through the business planning process. The course offers lessons in budgeting, marketing, social media, fundraising and more. Successful graduates emerge with a completed business plan and participate in a pitch session.

Annual Events

Each year, the Office of Equitable Development presents annual events to highlight their programs and further educate the community. These programs include: the Harlem Homebuyers Expo, the Small Business Expo, and Harlem Revive: A Community Day of Unity.

Affiliated Organizations

HCCI is proud to have established more than 30 tenant/resident associations. The agency also founded the Bradhurst Merchants Association and the Jackie Robinson Park Association, both of which are now independent non-profit organizations.

Bradhurst Merchants Association

The Bradhurst Merchants Association, Inc is a 501 (c)(6) organization located in Harlem's Bradhurst neighborhood. Established by HCCI in 2006, this independent nonprofit is a consortium of nearly 60 local business owners that provides support to local enterprises and serves the Harlem community. Some of the members include local eateries such as Peque Vinos + Tapas, the Renaissance and more!

Jackie Robinson Park Conservancy

Central to HCCI's effort to rebuild the Bradhurst neighborhood was the revitalization of Jackie Robinson Park. HCCI redeveloped the park, transforming it from a crime-ridden, blighted patch of land into a vibrant community resource. To sustain HCCI's efforts, in 1999, the agency established the Jackie Robinson Park Conservancy. The mission of the Jackie Robinson Park Conservancy is to give the park an even more vital role in enhancing the quality of life for the community at large. The Park received a grant from the US Department of Housing and Urban Development that partially funded a gardener. Under the gardener's supervision, thousands of bulbs have been planted, creating a splendor of spring and summer flowers throughout the park. JRPC actively participates in fundraising ventures in order to donate funds for various projects and purposes to the park to offset what we perceive as inadequate NYC Parks Department funding.
